EDGEWOOD, IA - Community Savings Bank is excited to announce the hiring of Jackie Lee as a Business Development Officer.

Lee will work as a Business Development Officer out of CSB's Guttenberg office, but serve customers all throughout CSB's communities. She will focus on continuing to strengthen relationships with business owners and community members as a representative of CSB.

Lee has over 20 years of experience in the business industry including the areas of operations, sales strategies, and marketing. She is a graduate of Edgewood-Colesburg High School and completed her Business Management Degree through Upper Iowa University. Lee currently resides in Guttenberg and in her free time enjoys traveling, gardening, and spending time with family and friends.

"I am passionate about driving the financial success of the others," said Lee, "I am looking forward to finding financial and tech savvy solutions for individuals and businesses through the products offered by CSB."

In her new position at CSB, Jackie's goals include growing the economic vitality of the region, and helping others attain their financial aspirations. More information about Jackie Lee can be found on CSB's Meet Our Team page at www.csbiowa.com/contact/meet-our-team
