COGGON, IA - Community Savings Bank is proud to donate $5,500 to the North Linn baseball and softball new dugouts and clubhouses project.

North Linn Community Schools is implementing a project for new dugouts and clubhouses at their baseball and softball fields. The project is expected to be done before the 2022 softball and baseball season.

"This is an upgrade that our programs have needed for a very long time," said Coach Travis Griffith upon receiving Community Savings Bank's donation.

The new dugouts will be ADA compliant and include two entrances: one to the field and one to the outside of the dugout.
